And upon said hearing, it satisfactorily appearing to the Court that the defendant herein, Richard E. Becker, was personally and duly served with summons herein attached to a copy of the complaint referred to in the said summons and on file in this cause, and the defendant has failed to answer, file a demurrer, or otherwise plead to the said complaint, and the time for so answering, demurring or otherwise pleading to said complaint having expired; and it satisfactorily appearing to the Court from an affidavit filed by the plaintiff that the defendant is not in the military service of the United States of America in any capacity whatsoever, and the default of the said defendant, Richard E. Becker, having been duly entered according to law, and the Court having heard the testimony introduced in behalf of the said plaintiff and in support of her complaint, and the cause having been thereupon submitted, and upon consideration of said testimony, the Court finds: That the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty and further that defendant has failed and neglected to provide for plaintiff and the minor children, and that as a result thereof plaintiff is entitled to be divorced from said defendant;

And the Court further finds that the said plaintiff has for more than six weeks immediately preceding the commencement of this action continuously resided in the State of Idaho and has been and is a bona fide resident of said state for more than such period immediately preceding the commencement of this action;

The Court further finds that there have been born as the issue of the said marriage between plaintiff and defendant two minor children of the names and ages as follows:

Richard Edward Becker, Jr., a boy, age 22 months, and

Mary Joanne Becker, a girl, age 8 months;

And the Court further finds that the plaintiff is the fit and proper person to have the custody of the minor children of plaintiff and defendant;

The above-entitled action having come on for trial before the Honorable L. E. Glennon, District Judge, this 22 day of April, 1949. Plaintiff appeared in person and with her attorneys, Black and Black of Pocatello, Idaho; defendant did not appear, either in person or by attorney.

Plaintiff and her witness were duly sworn and testified in support of the allegations of the Complaint, and the Court finds from the evidence that all of the allegations of plaintiff's Complaint have been proven by evidence free and clear of all legal objections, that defendant is not engaged in the Military or Armed Services of the United States Government, or in any Department of Public Health, and that plaintiff is entitled to the relief prayed for in the Complaint. This cause came regularly on to be heard before the court sitting without a jury in Pocatello, Bannock County, Idaho, on the 28th day of April, 1949. Merrill & Merrill, attorneys at law, appeared for and on behalf of the plaintiff, and no one appeared for the defendant.

It appeared to the court that the defendant has been duly served with summons in this cause and thereafter made and entered herein, his signed personal and voluntary appearance and submitted to the full jurisdiction of the court and waived notice of any further proceedings and consented to the entry of his default according to law.

It further appeared to the court from the evidence offered and received for and on behalf of the plaintiff that all the material allegations of the plaintiff's complaint are true and correct and that the prayer of the plaintiff's complaint ought to be granted.

NOW, THEREFORE, the court being now fully advised in the law and the premises:

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE NINTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT OF THE STATE OF IDAHO, IN AND FOR THE COUNTY OF BONNEVILLE

LORENA M. TALBOT Plaintiff, vs. ROBERT M. TALBOT Defendant.	FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

This cause came on regularly to be heard and tried in open court on the 25th day of March, 1949, before the Court without a jury, the plaintiff, Lorena M. Talbot, appeared in person and Holden & Holden of Idaho Falls, Idaho, appearing for and as the attorneys of record of the above named plaintiff, and E. A. Owen of Idaho Falls, Idaho, appearing for and as one of the attorneys of record of the above named defendant, and the said defendant, Robert M. Talbot, did not appear in person.

That said cause was heard and tried upon the plaintiff's verified Amended Complaint on file herein and upon the verified Answer of the above named defendant on file herein. That plaintiff and her witnesses were duly sworn and examined and testified for and in behalf of the above named plaintiff, and thereupon the said witnesses were cross-examined by the said E. A. Owen, one of the attorneys of record of the above named defendant, and that no witnesses were presented or testified for or in behalf of the above named defendant, and thereupon the plaintiff and the defendant rested, and the Court having heard the testimony and having examined the proofs offered by the said plaintiff, and the Court having duly considered the testimony and documentary evidence submitted in said cause and being now fully advised in the premises, the Court finds the facts as follows:

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. That the above named defendant was duly, regularly and personally served in the County of Bonneville, State of Idaho, with a true copy of the Summons issued out of said Court in said cause, attached to which was a true copy of the Complaint filed herein, as well as the Order To Show Cause and Restraining Order issued out of this Court and cause on the 19th day of November A.D. 1948; that thereafter and on the 1st day of December, 1948, the said defendant, Robert M. Talbot, was duly, regularly and personally served with a true copy of plaintiff's verified Amended Complaint on file herein; that thereafter the said defendant filed his verified Answer in said cause; that this Court has jurisdiction of the subject matter of this suit, and of the person of the above named plaintiff and of the person of the above named defendant.

2. That the plaintiff is now, and has for more than six weeks last past and next preceding the commencement of this action, been a bona fide resident and inhabitant of the County of Bonneville, State of Idaho.

3. That the plaintiff and defendant intermarried at Beaver, in the County of Beaver, State of Utah, on or about the 10th day of July, 1936, and ever since said date have been and now are husband and wife.

4. That no children have been born the issue of said marriage.

5. That the above named plaintiff and the above named defendant were formerly husband and wife and intermarried on the 10th day of July, 1916; that three children were born the issue of said first marriage of plaintiff and defendant, to-wit: a son named Robert Talbot, born on the 15th day of April, 1917, and a son named Lewis William Talbot, born April 28, 1918, and a daughter, named Maebelle Leonora Talbot, born July 10, 1921; that on the 28th day of August, A.D. 1935, the bonds of matrimony then existing between the above named plaintiff and the above named defendant was dissolved by decree of this Court, and that by the terms of said decree of divorce, the plaintiff was awarded the custody of said three minor children; that since the second marriage of plaintiff and defendant on July 10, 1936, the said sons and daughter of plaintiff and defendant have married and reside separate and apart from plaintiff and defendant.

6. That since said marriage of plaintiff and defendant on the 10th day of July, 1936, the defendant has treated the plaintiff with extreme cruelty and more particularly as follows:

A. That shortly after said marriage, the defendant ceased to accord to the plaintiff the consideration due to her from him as his wife, and utterly ceased and failed, and has ever since, wholly failed to show to the plaintiff any kindness or consideration whatever, but has at all times been cruel, overbearing, domineering and unkind, and has constantly heaped upon the plaintiff all manner of reproach and abuse.

B. That from June 1938 to March 1, 1944, the plaintiff and defendant owned and operated what is known as, and called Talbot Motor Court in Idaho Falls, Idaho. That on or about June 15th, 1939, the plaintiff fell into a hole on said premises and dislocated her left knee; that plaintiff was required to wear a cast for some time and to walk with crutches; that defendant insisted on plaintiff doing more work than she could stand in her crippled condition; that defendant refused to pay the help a sufficient wage to keep them, and that during such times, the plaintiff was required to perform the additional work, and it was more than she could stand.

C. That along in the summer of 1942, the said plaintiff caught the defendant with his arms around a female employee of the plaintiff and defendant, and later found the defendant and the same employee in plaintiff's and defendant's living apartment with the door locked.

D. That along in June 1942, while plaintiff was ill, plaintiff's and defendant's daughter, Maebelle Leonora Talbot, had a day off from her work and was assisting plaintiff in and about the work of said motor court, and that during said time, the said Maebelle Leonora Talbot spilled a few drops of water on the floor, whereupon the defendant became greatly enraged and struck the daughter a severe blow on the nose, knocking the daughter down and when she attempted to get up, the defendant would boot her and kept her down, and plaintiff went over and attempted to stop the defendant from further abusing their said daughter and the defendant thereupon struck this plaintiff a vicious blow on the body and knocked her six or seven feet, where she hit the wall; that this cruel treatment inflicted upon the plaintiff by defendant, caused this plaintiff great physical pain and suffering and forced plaintiff to return to bed for several days thereafter; that the defendant's blow on the said daughter's nose caused her nose to bleed and the plaintiff's and defendant's daughter suffered great physical pain and mental anguish; that same day plaintiff's and defendant's said daughter, Maebelle Leonora Talbot, left home and she never came back home to live.

E. That if plaintiff was a little behind with a meal, the defendant would become greatly enraged and would call the plaintiff an "old rip" and "hellion".

F. That on numerous occasions, the defendant would become angry and would call this plaintiff a "hell cat" and "orneriest damn woman on earth, without an ounce of sense on earth", and "you dress like an old whore and you must be one, or you wouldn't attract attention and everybody speak to you"; that defendant frequently called plaintiff a "whore".

G. That along in the spring of 1948, the defendant said to plaintiff, "I have my money in both boots and sister, it's going to stay there, and if I can find a sixteen-year old that would have me, I would take her".

H. That on or about the 27th day of September, 1948, while plaintiff and defendant were returning from Oregon to Idaho Falls, Idaho, the defendant said to plaintiff, "none of the children have any use for you and they all know what you are"; that said defendant also said to plaintiff, "I ought to stop the car and take you out in the field and beat the daylights out of you", and thereupon called this plaintiff a "whore"; that said defendant has frequently called this plaintiff a "damn chippy" and "low down" and "lower down than a damn snake".

I. That on November 15, 1948, while plaintiff and defendant were talking about a property settlement in a contemplated divorce action, the defendant said "wouldn't you feel like a prize heel, as little as you have done to get it?" and "I'll tell you what you'll get".

7. That the cruel and inhuman treatment inflicted upon the plaintiff by the defendant has caused plaintiff great physical pain and mental anguish, and that by reason of such inhuman treatment, the plaintiff has become and is a nervous wreck, and has become greatly enfeebled in health, and is now and has been for several months last past, under the doctor's care.

8. That all of the acts and things so done and performed on the part of the defendant toward the plaintiff were without cause or provocation; that the plaintiff at all times since said marriage, has demeaned herself toward the defendant as a true and loving wife, has consulted his comfort and convenience and has striven in every way and manner to make him happy, and has performed all of the duties of a wife and mother to the test of her ability.

9. That the design of the defendant in all of the acts and things above set forth, was to vex, annoy and harass said plaintiff and the effects of such acts was to vex, annoy and harass said plaintiff and render her life burdensome and insupportable; that the said plaintiff was unable longer to endure said cruel and inhuman treatment inflicted upon her by the defendant, and since the 26th day of September, 1948, has resided separate and apart from the said defendant.

10. That plaintiff and defendant are possessed of the following described real and personal property, all of which is community property and was acquired by plaintiff and defendant since marriage and through the joint efforts of both; $83,000.00 lawful money of the United States, which said sum was acquired by plaintiff and defendant through the sale of various real properties, located in Idaho Falls, Idaho, and which said sum of money is and has been at all times, in the possession of, and under the control of the said defendant; that during the time the said sum of money was being accumulated by plaintiff and defendant, the income of the said plaintiff and defendant was more than sufficient for their current needs; that plaintiff and defendant are also possessed of real estate and other personal property of the value of $18,750.00 and is described as follows, to-wit:

> Lots Forty-three (43) to Forty-eight (48) inclusive, Block Fifteen (15), Mayflower Addition to the City of Idaho Falls, Idaho, as per the recorded plat thereof; Lot Two (2) in Block Twenty-four (24), original townsite, Idaho Falls, Idaho; Lots Ten (10), Eleven (11) and Twelve (12), Block Eleven (11), Capitol Hill Addition to the City of Idaho Falls, Idaho; Lots One (1) to Seven (7), both inclusive, Block Eleven (11), Capitol Hill Addition to the City of Idaho Falls, Idaho.

> One Pontiac 8 Sedan Automobile, Motor No. C8PB8119, Serial No. C8PB8119, Shot Guns, Rifle, one two-wheeled luggage trailer, one sewing machine, all household goods and furniture, Delta Band Saw, one Jig Saw; also Postal Savings Notes as follows:

The court further finds that the stipulation executed by the parties is fair and reasonable, having due regard to the circumstances of the parties, and the court adopts the same. It further appears, and the court finds, that defendant has paid the sum of $120.00 to plaintiff for her attorneys' fees and costs herein.

Plaintiff,	:
	:	Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law, and Decree of Divorce.
vs.	:
Thiel G. Hale,	:
Defendant.	:

This cause came on for hearing on the 22nd day of April, 1949, at chambers at Idaho Falls, Idaho, when the plaintiff was represented by her counsel, Louise Keefer.

The defendant did not appear either in person or by counsel and a non-military affidavit, so called, having been made by the plaintiff, and filed and the default of the defendant having been duly entered, the records showing that he was served with process and that he failed to appear or plead in the cause.

On the conclusion of the hearing the Court took the matter under advisement and on consideration the Court now finds the facts and the law and conclusions as follows:

Findings of Fact

1. That plaintiff has been a bonafide resident of the County of Bonneville, State of Idaho, for many years last past and continuously to the present time.

2. That plaintiff and defendant were married at Dillon, Montana, on or about the 23rd day of July, 1946, and ever since have been, and now are, husband and wife.

3. That one child, Kathryn Ruth Hale, aged twenty months, has been born ~~born~~ as the issue of said marriage, and said child is now living. That the plaintiff is a fit and proper person to whom the custody of the said child should be awarded. That the defendant is an unfit person to have the custody and control of said child.

4. That defendant has treated the plaintiff in a cruel and inhuman manner in that he does not assume the duties and responsibilities of a married man; that he does not make a home for the plaintiff; that he wanders from place to place without notifying the plaintiff where he is going, seldom, if ever, leaving any money for her support or for her child; having contributed only the sum of $120.00 in the past five months toward the support of plaintiff and her child. That as a result of defendant's actions plaintiff's health has been and is impaired, and life has become intolerable to her.

5. That all of the allegations of the said complaint are true.

6. That defendant should pay the sum of $50.00 per month for the support of said minor child, and should pay attorney's fees in the sum of $100.00.

Conclusions of Law

From the foregoing Findings of Fact the Court makes the following Conclusions of Law, to wit:

1. That the Court has jurisdiction to decide herein the case.

2. That the allegations of the said complaint are supported by unimpeachable evidence to support a decree of divorce.

3. A decree of divorce should ~~be~~ made and entered herein awarding the custody of the said child to the plaintiff.

4. That defendant should pay to plaintiff $50.00 per month beginning May 1st 1949, until the further order of the Court, for the support, maintenance and education of the minor child, and the sum of $100.00 for attorney's fees.

From the foregoing Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, the Court makes and enters herein its decree of divorce and judgment as follows, to wit:

IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between Ruth C. Hale and Thiel G. Hale, plaintiff and defendant respectively, be and the same are hereby wholly dissolved, and the parties freed from the obligations thereof.

2. That the care and custody of the child born as the issue of said marriage, to wit, Kathryn Ruth Hale, be and it is hereby awarded to the plaintiff, reserving, however, a right of visitation in the husband at reasonable times and places, provided he is not in default in his payments.

3. That the defendant pay to the plaintiff each and every month hereafter until the further order of the Court herein the sum of $50.00 a month as a suitable allowance for the support, maintenance and education of the said child. That such payments shall be made on the 1st day of each and every month subsequent to the date hereof.

4. That the defendant pay the sum of $100.00 for attorney's fees.

Dated April 22nd, 1949.

That there has been born as issue of said marriage two children, both of whom are of age, to-wit: Myra, aged 25, and Delva, aged 24.

That the plaintiff and the defendant have settled their property rights as between themselves and no property rights need be adjudicated in this action.

vs. DECREE.

Samuel M. Carey, Defendant.

The above entitled action came regularly on to be heard at Wallace, Idaho, before Honorable Albert H. Featherstone, judge of said court, in chambers. The plaintiff appeared and was represented by her counsel, H. E. Worstell. The defendant did not appear either in person or by counsel.

It appeared to the satisfaction of the court from the record and files in said action that, pursuant to an order for the personal service of the summons herein outside the state of Idaho, the summons and a copy of the complaint were personally served upon the defendant by the sheriff of Lincoln County, Nevada, in said Lincoln County. That proof of said service of the summons and complaint has been duly and regularly made and filed herein, and the default of the defendant because of his failure to appear in this action and either demur to or answer the complaint within the time allowed by law has been duly and regularly entered and endorsed upon the complaint.

The plaintiff and a witness in her behalf were called, sworn and examined and testified concerning the allegations of the complaint and the court being now fully advised in the premises and of the facts of this action, and the making and filing of findings of fact and conclusions of law having been waived by the defendant by his failure to appear at the trial of this action, the court now makes and renders the following judgment and decree, to wit:

IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff, Lois Carey, and the defendant, Samuel M. Carey, be, and the same hereby are, wholly dissolved and annulled, and the said parties be, and they hereby are, restored to the state of unmarried persons.

thereof, and that a decree of absolute divorce be, and the same is hereby, rendered and entered herein in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant.

And it is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that said property settlement is equitable, fair and just, and that said property settlement agreement, a copy of which is annexed to the amended complaint herein, be, and the same is hereby, duly approved and confirmed, and that said property settlement, as contained in said agreement, be, and the same is hereby, in all respects, approved and confirmed.

And it is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the care, custody and control of said minor child, namely, Linda Diane Malone, be, and the same are hereby, awarded to the plaintiff, Mary Malone, and that the defendant, Delmar Malone, be, and he is hereby, given and granted the right to visit said miner child at reasonable times.

And it is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the defendant, Delmar Malone, be, and he is hereby, directed, required and ordered to pay to the plaintiff, Mary Malone, for the support and maintenance of said minor child, Linda Diane Malone, the sum of thirty-five dollars each and every calendar month hereafter, until said minor child shall have reached the age of eighteen years, and it is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the first of said payments shall be made on or before the 22nd day of April, 1949, and that a like payment shall be made on or before the 22nd day of each and every calendar month thereafter for and during the time aforesaid, and it is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the defendant pay to the plaintiff such further sums as may from time to time be reasonably required for such medical and hospital expenses as may be necessarily incurred on behalf of said minor child.

And it is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the following described property, and each and every part thereof, and each and every interest therein, be, and the same is hereby, set aside, transferred, set over, conveyed, assigned and decreed to the plaintiff, Mary Malone, as her sole and separate property, free and clear of and from any and all claims of the defendant, Delmar Malone, therein or thereto, to-wit: That certain personal property, situate and being in Twin Falls County, State of Idaho, particularly described as follows:

DECREE OF DIVORCE.

THIS MATTER came on to be heard before the above entitled court on the 1st day of April, 1949. Plaintiff appeared in person and by her attorney, J. H. Barnes. Defendant did not appear. It is shown to the Court, by Sheriff's return on summons herein, that personal service of the summons and complaint inthis action was had on the defendant in Valley County, Idaho, on the 8th day of March, 1949. It appears to the Court that the defendant has not made any appearance herein, for any purpose, since the date of said service, and that, on the 30th day of March, 1949, the default of the defendant for failure to appear and plead was entered by the Clerk of this Court. Now, on motion of plaintiff's attorney, it is ordered that said entry of default be and the same is approved and confirmed.

Plaintiff was sworn and testified, and a witness was sworn and testified in corroboration of plaintiff's testimony as to residence. From the evidence thus adduced, the Court finds that the plaintiff has been a bona fide resident of Idaho for more than six full weeks next precedint the commencement of this action; that plaintiff and defendant were married at Carlin, Nevada, on the 21st day of April, 1946, and ever since have been and now are wife and husband; that there are no children born of said marriage; that there is no community real property, but there is community personal property, consisting of household goods, furniture, etc., which is mortgaged for $100.00; that defendant has treated plaintiff with extreme cruelty, by the infliction upon her of grevious mental suffering.

From the foregoing findings, the Court concludes that the plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce from defendant on the ground of cruelty; that plaintiff should be awarded the community personal property; and that she should be restored to her maiden name of Delores C. Studley.

WHEREFORE IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREE, and this does order, adjudge and decree, that the bonds of matrimony now existing between plaintiff and defendant be and they hereby are dissolved and that each of said parties be restored to the status of a single, unmarried person; that the community household goods and furniture be and it hereby is awarded to plaintiff; that plaintiff be restored to her maiden name of Delores C. Studley.

Plaintiff appeared in person and by her attorney J. W. Taylor, Esquire, and defendant did not appear either in person or by attorney. The time allowed by law and a further time allowed by the Court for defendant to answer or demur having expired and no answer or demurrer having been filed herein, and the default of the defendant having been duly entered, testimony was submitted by the plaintiff and witnesses in her behalf, and the Court having heard the evidence and being fully advised in the premises, finds that all the allegations of the plaintiff's complaint are true and that plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce upon the grounds of willful neglect and extreme cruelty, as prayed in her complaint.

It is therefore ordered, adjudged and decreed that the bonds of matrimony existing between plaintiff and defendant be, and the same hereby are, dissloved, and each of the parties is restored to the status of a single, unmarried person.

It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the care, custody and control of Diane Moran and Sharon Moran, the minor daughters of the parties hereto be, and the same hereby are, awarded to the plaintiff; that the defendant shall have the right to visit said children at all reasonable times so long as he shall keep up the payments hereinafter provided for the support of said minor children, and provided that he shall not attempt to interfere with the plaintiff's custody of said minor children, and shall not remove, or attempt to remove said children from the State of Idaho without an order of this Court permitting him to do so.

It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the defendant pay, and he is hereby required to pay to the Plaintiff the sum of $50.00 for the support of said minor daughters per month, beginning as of the First day of May, 1949, and monthly thereafter on the first day of each and every month, and the sum of $25.00 for costs incurred in this action, and the further sum of $100.00 as an attorneys fee for the prosecution of this action and which sum shall be in payment of both temporary and final attorneys fee herein. The said sum of $25.00 costs and the said sum of $100.00 attorneys fee to be paid on or before May 1, 1949.

DECREE OF DIVORCE.

B.V.S.

THIS MATTER came on to be heard before the above entitled Court on the 15th day of April, 1949. Plaintiff appeared in person and by his attorney, J. H. Barnes; defendant made no appearance. It is shown to the Court, by an affidavit attached to the summons, that, pursuant to affidavit and order, personal service of the summons and complaint herein was made on the defendant outside the State of Idaho, to-wit, in the State of California, on the 19th day of March, 1949; it appearing further that said defendant did not make any appearance herein between the 19th day of March, 1949, and the 11th day of April, 1949, and that on the latter date the Clerk of this Court entered the default of the defendant for failure to appear and plead within the time allowed by law; now, on motion of plaintiff's attorney, IT IS ORDERED that said entry of default be and the same hereby is approved and confirmed.

The plaintiff was sworn and testified, and a witness was sworn in testified in corroboration of plaintiff's testimony as to length of residence. From the evidence thus adduced, the Court finds that plaintiff had been a bona fide resident of Idaho for more than six full weeks next preceding the commencement of this action; that plaintiff and defendant were married at Reno, Nevada, February 20th, 1946; that there are no children born of said marriage, and no property belonging to said community; that on or about the 1st day of October, 1946, defendant seperated herself from plaintiff with intent to desert him, and ever since has lived seperate and apart from him, without his consent and against his will.

WHEREFORE IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, and this does order, adjudge and decree, that the bonds of matrimony now existing between plaintiff and defendant be and the same hereby are dissolved upon the ground of defendant's wilful desertaion of plaintiff, and that each of said parties be and they hereby are restored to the status of single, unmarried persons.

DECREE OF DIVORCE (COPY)

Now on this 22nd day of April, 1949, this matter came on for hearing to the Court. Plaintiff appeared in person and by Earl E. Walker, Esq., her attorney herein. The defendant did not appear. Witnesses were sworn and testified on behalf of the plaintiff after which the matter was submitted to the Court for its decision.

Upon consideration of the files and of the evidence, the Court finds that the defendant, Lester Kruse, has appeared herein by counsel; that the said defendant has wholly failed to Answer or otherwise plead to the Amended Complaint filed herein by the plaintiff although the time for so doing has expired and is in default and that the defendant's default has been duly entered against him by the Clerk of this Court. The Court further finds that the material allegations of plaintiff's complaint are true; that the defendant is guilty of extreme cruelty toward the plaintiff and that by reason thereof the plaintiff is entitled to a divorce from the defendant. The Court further finds that the plaintiff is a suitable and proper person to have the custody of the minor children of the parties hereto and that the custody of said minor children should be awarded to the plaintiff, with the provision, however, that in the event LaVonna Kruse, the daughter of the parties hereto, should choose to live with her father, the defendant herein, that she be at liberty so to do. The Court further finds that the sum of $20.00 per month is a fair and reasonable amount to allow the plaintiff from the defendant for the support of each of said minor children while they are in the custody of the plaintiff.

WHEREFORE, It is decreed by the Court:

1. That the plaintiff be and she hereby is divorced from the defendant.

2. That the plaintiff have the custody of the minor children of the parties hereto, to-wit: LaVonna Kruse and Keith Kruse, with the provision, however, ~~that in the event~~

~~the said LaVonna Kruse should wish to reside with her father, the defendant herein, that she shall be at liberty so to do.~~ and that defendant have the right to visit children at reasonable times.

3. That the defendant pay to the plaintiff, for the support of said minor children, the sum of $20.00 per month for each child, beginning on the 1st day of May, 1949, such sums to be paid to the said plaintiff by the defendant only as such children are actually in her custody and under her care. In the event the said LaVonna Kruse should choose to live with her father, the defendant, he shall not be required to pay the plaintiff for her support during the times that such child is actually in his home and being supported by him.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

THIS MATTER came on to be heard before the above entitled Court on the 22nd day of April, 1949. Plaintiff appeared in person and by her attorney, J. H. Barnes; defendant did not appear. It is shown to the Court that, pursuant to affidavit and order, service of the summons in this action was had on the defendant by publication; that the last day of publication was March ~~25th~~ 31st, 1949, and that the defendant has not made any appearance herein within twenty days following said last publication; it appears further that the Clerk of our Court has entered the default of the defendant for failure to appear and plead within the time allowed by law; now, on motion of plaintiff's attorney, IT IS ORDERED that said entry of default be and it hereby is approved and confirmed.

The plaintiff was sworn and testified, and a witness was sworn and testified in corroboration of plaintiff's testimony as to residence. From the evidence thus adduced, the Court finds that the plaintiff had been a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho for more than six weeks next preceding the commencement of this action; that plaintiff and defendant were married at Des Moines, Iowa, on the 19th day of April, 1946, and ever since have been and now are wife and husband; that there are no children born of said marriage; that there is no property belonging to the community consisting of plaintiff and defendant; that on or about the 16th day of November, 1947, the defendant voluntarily separated himself from the plaintiff with intent to desert her, and ever since has lived separate and apart from plaintiff.

From the facts thus found, the Court concludes that the plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce from the defendant on the statutory ground of wilful desertion.

WHEREFORE IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, and this does order, adjudge and decree, that the bonds of matrimony now existing between plaintiff and defendant be and the same hereby are dissolved upon the ground of defendant's wilful desertion of plaintiff, and that each of said parties be and they hereby are restored to the status of a single, unmarried person.

#22120

The above-entitled cause came on for hearing before the Court in open court at Boise, County of Ada, State of Idaho, on the 27th day of May, 1949. The plaintiff appeared in person and through her attorney, Benj. F. Harrison, and the defendant did not appear, either in person or by attorney.

It appeared to the Court that the defendant had been served with process by personal service of copies of the summons and complaint in said action without the state of Idaho as required by law and had failed to appear and answer, or otherwise plead to, the plaintiff's complaint filed in said action, and that no further time had been granted the defendant in which to appear and answer, or otherwise to plead to said cause.

It further appearing from plaintiff's affidavit, and satisfactory evidence adduced, that the defendant is not now, and has not been since the commencement of this action, nor for more than one year prior thereto, in military service of the United States of America, or its allied nations, as contemplated by the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended, and the Court had ordered the Clerk to enter the default of the defendant according to law.

The plaintiff introduced evidence in behalf of her complaint, which was corroborated by the testimony of one witness as to her residence in the state of Idaho, and the cause was submitted to the Court for decision and after considering the evidence, and being fully advised, the Court finds the issues in favor of the plaintiff, and against the defendant, and that said defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty of and toward the plaintiff, and that said plaintiff is entitled to have the bonds of matrimony existing between the plaintiff and defendant dissolved, and to be divorced from the defendant.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED as follows;

That the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and defendant be, and the same are hereby, dissolved, and the plaintiff divorced from the defendant.

Done at Boise, Idaho, this 27th day of May, 1949.

BELLE V. MARTINEZ,

Plaintiff,

vs.

CARLOS MARTINEZ, FIRST SECURITY BANK OF IDAHO, N.A. Pocatello branch, a banking corporation, DANNY POULOS and BOBBIE WEAVER, Defendants.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

The above entitled matter came duly on for hearing before the undersigned District Judge in his Chambers in Pocatello, Idaho, on the 19th day of May, 1949.

The plaintiff appeared in person and by her attorney, F. E. Tydeman.

The defendant, Carlos Martinez, failed to appear either in person or by attorney.

It appearing that a duly verified complaint has been filed herein, and that a summons thereupon issued, and that the said summons has been served upon the defendants in Bannock County, Idaho. and with proper proof of such service has been returned to the above entitled court and filed with the Clerk thereof.

It further appearing that the defendant, Carlos Martinez, has failed to appear in the manner and within the time provided in the said summons, and is in default therefor, and his default having been duly entered by the Clerk of the above entitled court, the cause was ready to be submitted to the court.

The defendant, Carlos Martinez, not having appeared, findings of fact and conclusions of law have been waived, and the court finds from the testimony of the plaintiff and one other witness, that the allegations of the complaint are true:

That for more than six weeks prior to the filing of the said complaint herein and at the time of the hearing, the plaintiff was an actual bona fide resident of the State of Idaho; that the orders issued to the defendants, Danny Poulos and Bobbie Weaver, were properly issued; that the parties hereto were married in Pocatello, Idaho, on the 5th day of April, 1931, and have been husband and wife since that date; that the community property of the parties consisted of a business block in Pocatello, Idaho, which is more fully described herein and some household furniture; that there are four minor children of the parties hereto, to-wit: Carol Jean, age 17, Carl Jr., age 15, Juanita, age 13, Delores, age 12; that the said children are now in the custody of the plaintiff; that the defendant is not employed by the United States Government nor is he in any branch of the armed forces but is engaged in a strictly civilian occupation; that the plaintiff has no training or occupation with which to earnsufficient money to care for the said children; that the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty within the meaning of the statutes relative to grounds for divorce in the State of Idaho; that the court has investigaged the condition of the property hereinafter described and finds that it is advisable to decree all of the said property to the plaintiff, subject to the liens upon the property, including a lien for the plaintiff's attorney's fee.

It is therefore ordered, adjudged and decreed that the bonds of matrimony now existing between the parties be dissolved and the parties restored to the status of single persons.

That the custody of the children of the parties, to-wit: Carol Jean Martinez, Carl Martinez, Jr., Juanita Martinez, and Delores Martinez is hereby awarded to the plaintiff.

That all of the household furniture belonging to the parties hereto is awarded to the plaintiff.

That there is awarded to the plaintiff as her sole and separate property all of the following described real estate located in Bannock County, State of Idaho, to-wit:

Commencing at the North corner of Lot one, Block 372, Pocatello Townsite, Bannock County, State of Idaho, and running thence in a Southwesterly direction along the line between Center Street and said Lot one a distance of 30 feet for the beginning point of the following survey, thence at right angles in a Southeasterly direction parallel with Second Avenue 90 feet to the dividing line between Lots 3 and 4 of said Block, thence at right angles in a Southwesterly direction along said dividing line 30 feet, thence at right angles in a Northwesterly direction parallel with Second Avenue 90 feet to the Southerly line of Center Street, thence at right angles in a Northeasterly direction along the line between Center Street and said Lot one, 30 feet to the place of beginning, the same being a rectangular piece of ground having a frontage of 30 feet on Center Street and extending back 90 feet across said Lots 1, 2, and 3 and containing 2700 square feet according to Official Plat thereof.

The above entitled cause came on regularly to be heard and tried before the Court, sitting without a jury, at Gooding, in the County of Gooding, State of Idaho, upon the 23rd day of April, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney, Perce Hall, and the defendant appearing not, neither in person nor by attorney nor otherwise;

Upon said hearing it appeared to the satisfaction of the Court that the defendant J. Quentin Wakeman had been duly and regularly served with Summons in this action in the manner provided by law and that said defendant had failed to appear and answer, demur or otherwise plead to the plaintiff's Complaint within the time allowed by law and the default of said defendant having been duly entered according to law and the Court having heard the testimony introduced in behalf of the plaintiff and in support of the allegations of her Complaint and the cause having been submitted;

After duly considering the testimony introduced herein the Court finds the issues upon the plaintiff's Complaint in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant and upon the first cause of action set out in plaintiff's Complaint the Court finds that the defendant has been guilty of wilful desertion of the plaintiff and upon the second cause of action of plaintiff's Complaint the Court finds that the parties hereto have not cohabited together for a period of more than five consecutive years and that by reason thereof the plaintiff is entitled to have the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and the defendant dissolved;

And the Court further finds that upon the 9th day of April, 1949, the plaintiff and the defendant made and entered into one certain Agreement in writing, in words and figures as follows:

THIS AGREEMENT, Made and entered into this 9th day of April, 1949, by and between Inez E. Wakeman, hereinafter designated as the first party, and J. Quentin Wakeman, hereinafter designated as the second party, WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, The said parties desire to settle and adjust certain of the differences arising between them in connection with the division and disposition of their community property and in connection with the custody of their minor child, NOW, THEREFORE;

IT IS MUTUALLY UNDERSTOOD AND AGREED by and between the parties hereto as follows:

1. That the first party shall have and the second party hereby conveys to the first party, so that the same may be held by the first party as her sole and separate property, all of the right, title, claim and interest of the second party in and to the following described personal property, to-wit:

1 Portable Corona Typewriter

All moneys or other property now in the possession of the first party and all furniture, fixtures, equipment, clothing and personal effects now in the possession of the first party.

2. That the second party shall have and the first party hereby conveys to him, to have and to hold the same as his sole and separate property, all of the right, title, claim and interest of the first party in and to the following described property, to-wit:

All stock-in-trade, furniture, fixtures and supplies of that certain business located in Atlanta, Idaho, and known as the Atlanta Mercantile Company;

1 Oldsmobile Sedan, year model 1937;
1 Five-room log cabin, situate upon the Public Domain in Atlanta, Idaho;
Personal clothing and effects now in the possession of the second party.

3. The first party shall have and she is hereby granted the care, custody and Control of Billie Karleen Wakeman, minor child of the parties hereto and that hereafter the second party shall pay to the first party towards the support and maintenance of said minor child the sum of $25.00 each and every month, on or before the 5th day of each and every calendar month hereafter, commencing with the month of April, 1949, and that the second party shall continue to make said payments to the first party until said minor child attains the age of majority, at which time said payments shall cease.

4. It is mutually agreed between the parties hereto that this agreement is made with the intention and for the purpose of settling forever all of the property rights existing between the parties hereto, and it is agreed that neither of them will hereafter make any claim upon the other of any kind or nature whatsoever, dependent upon or growing out of their marriage relationship, save and except to enforce the terms of this agreement, and it is agreed between the parties hereto that all property acquired by either of them shall be the sole and separate property of the party acquiring the same, free and clear from any claim, interest or control whatsoever of the other party.

5. Subject to the approval of the Court in the above entitled action, this agreement may be incorporated into and be made a part of any decree of divorce entered by the Court in said action.

This cause came on regularly to be heard in open Court on the 16th day of May, 1949, and it appearing that the defendant, Evelyn A. Grove, was duly and regularly served with process herein by personal service of another summons upon her in the State of Oregon, according to law, and that she has failed to appear in any manner or at all herein although the time for appearance has fully expired, and a proper and sufficient affidavit showing that the defendant was not at any time during the pendency of this action and is not now in the service of the United States of America, either army or navy, or otherwise, having been filed herein and based thereon a Judge of this Court made and there was filed an order permitting the default of said defendant to be entered upon proper and sufficient showing of service upon said defendant, and thereupon and on such order and showing of proper service upon said defendant, the Clerk of this Court duly entered the default of the said defendant, and the Court thereupon proceeded to try said cause.

The Court having heard the testimony of the plaintiff and a witness in his behalf and having examined the evidence in support of the allegations of the complaint herein, and the matter having been submitted to the Court for judgment, and the Court having considered the evidence and being fully advised in the premises, finds: That all the material allegations of the plaintiff as set forth in his complaint herein are true, to-wit: That plaintiff and defendant intermarried as alleged in said complaint; that plaintiff is and for more than six weeks preceding the commencement of this action was a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho; that plaintiff and defendant ceased to live together as husband and wife as alleged in said complaint and ever since they so ceased to live together have been and now are living separate and apart; that the names of the parties hereto appear in their marriage certificate as Groves but that the true name is Grove; that the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty in her conduct toward and treatment of the said plaintiff as alleged in said complaint, without just cause on the part of the plaintiff; that there are no property rights or interests involved in this action; that there is no child the issue of the marriage of the parties hereto; that the former name of the defendant was Evelyn A. Veneman and that such former name should be restored to said defendant herein.

The Court therefore finds that plaintiff is entitled to judgment and decree of this Court dissolving the bonds of matrimony now existing between himself and the defendant, on the grounds of extreme cruelty of the defendant toward the plaintiff; and that the defendant should be restored to her former name of Evelyn A. Veneman.

IT IS THEREFORE HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the marriage between the plaintiff, Harold L. Grove, and the defendant, Evelyn A. Grove, be, and the same hereby is dissolved on the grounds of extreme cruelty of the defendant toward the plaintiff, and that the said parties be, and they are hereby relieved of all the obligations of said marriage and are returned to the status of unmarried persons.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the defendant be, and she hereby is restored to her former name of Evelyn A. Veneman.

This cause came on regularly to be heard by the court this 16th day of May, 1949, the plaintiff appearing with her attorney, J. P. Reed, and the defendant making no appearance. And it being shown to the court that the defendant was duly served with summons in this action and failed to appear and plead to the complaint of the plaintiff herein within the time allowed by law or at all, and that the default of the defendant has been duly entered and filed in this action, and that a proper affidavit of military status is on file herein showing that the defendant is not in the military service of the United State of America, thereupon the court heard the evidence of plaintiff in support of her said complaint, together with evidence in corroboration of the plaintiff, from which evidence the court now finds that the allegations of plaintiff's said complaint are true, and that she is entitled to the relief therein prayed for. Wherefore, in pursuance of the law and the evidence, the court now renders judgment in favor of plaintiff and against the defendant as follows, to-wit:

1. It is hereby ordered, adjudged and decreed by the court that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff, Ella G. DECREE OF DIVORCE

#22138

The above-entitled cause came on for hearing before the Court in open court at Boise, County of Ada, State of Idaho, on the 3rd day of June, 1949. The plaintiff appeared in person, and through her attorney, Benj. F. Harrison, and the defendant did not appear, either in person, or by attorney.

It appearing to the Court that the defendant had been served with process by personal service of a copy of the summons and complaint within the state as required by law, and had failed to appear and answer the plaintiff's complaint filed in said cause, or otherwise plead thereto, and that no further time had been granted the defendant in which to appear and answer or plead to said cause.

It also appearing from plaintiff's affidavit and satisfactory evidence adduced that the defendant is not now, and for more than sixty days prior to the commencement of this action has not been, in any branch of military service of the United States of America, or its allied nations, as contemplated by the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended, and the Court had ordered the Clerk to enter the default of the defendant according to law.

I-bfh

The plaintiff introduced evidence in behalf of her complaint, which was corroborated by the testimony of one witness as to her residence, and the cause was submitted to the Court for decision, and after considering the evidence and being fully advised, the Court finds the issues in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant, and that defendant is guilty of extreme cruelty as alleged in plaintiff's complaint, and plaintiff is entitled to have the bonds of matrimony existing between the plaintiff and defendant dissolved, and be divorced from defendant; that plaintiff should have the care, custody and control of the minor children of the parties hereto; and that defendant should pay to the plaintiff a reasonable sum to help defray the expenses of support and maintenance of said minor children; and that the community property of the parties hereto, consisting of household goods, furniture and fixtures, be set over to the plaintiff as her sole and separate property.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED as follows:

(Ist) That the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and defendant be, and the same are hereby, dissolved, and the plaintiff divorced from the defendant; and,

(2nd) That the plaintiff have the care, custody and control of the minor children of the parties hereto, Barbara Jean Woods, Betty Jo Woods and John William Woods, subject only to the right of the defendant to visit with the said minor children at reasonable and seasonable times, and without in any manner molesting the plaintiff; and,

(3rd) That the defendant shall pay to the plaintiff the sum of $25.00 per month to assist in defraying the expense of support and maintenance for each one of said minor children, commencing on the Ist day of July, 1949, and until each such minor child shall reach its majority, die, or is married, or until the further order of this Court; and,

(4th) That the community property of the parties hereto, consisting of household goods, furniture and fixtures, be set over as the sole and separate property of the plaintiff.

DECREE

This cause came on regularly to be heard, in open court, on the 17th day of June, 1949, the plaintiff being represented by his attorney, J.M. Lampert, the defendant not appearing.

The record showing due services of process, and the time for answer or other plea having expired and no answer or other plea having been filed to the complaint herein, and affidavit being on file showing that defendant is not now, and for more than six month last past has not been in the Military Service of the United States of America as defined in Section 101 (1) of the Soldier's and Sailor's Relief Act of 1940, or any amendments thereof--the default of defendant is entered.

The court finds that the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty toward the plaintiff, and that the allegations of the complaint are sustained by the evidence, and the plaintiff has been a resident of Idaho for more than six full weeks preceding the filing of this action.

NOW THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the bonds of matrimony existing between the plaintiff and defendant be, and they are dissolved, and the parties hereto are restored to the status of single persons.

The above entitled cause came on regularly to be heard and tried before the court on the 17th day of June, 1949, plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney, Frank Langley, Esquire, and the defendant not appearing;

And it further appearing that the defendant, Weldon E. Hunt, was duly served with summons herein and that he has failed to appear and answer the plaintiff's complaint or otherwise plead within the time allowed by law, or at all, and that his default in the premises has been duly entered, and the plaintiff having duly submitted her evidence, and the cause having been submitted for decision, and the court being fully advised in the premises now, from said evidence, finds that all of the allegations of the plaintiff's complaint are true and that said plaintiff has been, and now is, a bona fide resident of and has continuously resided in the State of Idaho for more than six weeks immediately preceding the commencement of this action, and that plaintiff and defendant were married to each other at Payette, Idaho, on August 10, 1945, and ever since have been and now are husband and wife, and are the parents of two children, namely, Georgia Lee Hunt, born June 11, 1943, and Harold Alan Hunt, born May 17, 1946, and of an unborn child, and that on numerous occasions during the ten months next preceding the commencement of this action said defendant did wilfully and without just just cause treat the plaintiff in an extremely cruel and unjust manner by cursing her and calling her vile names thus causing plaintiff to suffer great mental anguish and worry, and that plaintiff and defendant have acquired and now own a small amount of community property as follows, to-wit:

> Household furniture and effects now in the home of plaintiff in Boise, Idaho; a gas refrigerator now in the possession of defendant's parents in the State of California; and old 4-door ~~automobile~~ Ford automobile, title to which is in the defendant's name.

The court further finds from said evidence that at the time of the commencement of this action the plaintiff and defendant were the owners of a 1940 Studebaker Truck with trailer suitable for use in hauling logs, and that since the commencement of this action said truck and trailer were totally destroyed by wreckage and fire, and that at the time of such loss said truck and trailer were fully insured in favor of said defendant by the Central National Insurance Company of Omaha, Nebraska, and that no settlement has yet been made by said Insurance Company for said loss, and that the Credit Finance Corporation of Boise, Idaho, claims a first lien upon the proceeds from said insurance in the amount of about $1,100.00.

Therefore, it is hereby determined that plaintiff, Carol J. Hunt, is entitled to judgment herein against the defendant, Weldon E. Hunt, for an absolute divorce upon the ground of extreme cruelty; for the custody of all of plaintiff's children as mentioned in her complaint herein; for attorney's fees in the sum of $150.00; for plaintiff's costs and disbursements in the sum of $30.00; for alimony at the rate of $100.00 per month until the further order of the court, payments to be made on the first day of each month hereafter; and for all of the community property of plaintiff and defendant, except the personal effects of the defendant.

WHEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED As follows, to-wit:

(a) That the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff, Carol J. Hunt, and the defendant, Weldon E. Hunt, be and hereby are dissolved and set aside and the said plaintiff and defendant are hereby divorced upon the ground of extreme cruelty and they are restored to the status of single persons;

(b) That the custody and control of all of plaintiff's children, towit, Georgia Lee Hunt, Harold Alan Hunt and Plaintiff's unborn child is awarded and given to the plaintiff, Carol J. Hunt;

(c) That said defendant pay to said plaintiff, for the maintenance and support of plaintiff and her said children and until the further order of the court herein, alimony at the rate of One Hundred Dollars per month, payments to be made on the first day of each month hereafter;

(d) That all of the community property of plaintiff and defendant, including their claim against the Central National Insurance Company of Omaha, Nebraska, for the destruction and loss by fire of said 1940 Studebaker Truck with trailer, except the Defendant's personal effects, is hereby awarded to the plaintiff, Carol J. Hunt, as her sole and separate property;

(e) That the plaintiff, Carol J. Hunt, have and recover of and from the defendant, Weldon E. Hunt, the sum of One Hundred Fifty Dollars ($150.00) for attorney's fees herein and the further sum of Twenty Dollars ($20.00) for plaintiff's costs and disbursements herein.

JUDGMENT AND DECREE OF DIVORCE

This action coming on regularly for trial in open court this 24th day of June, 1949, upon the complaint of the plaintiff, Harry C. Miller, and the defendant, Mae A. Miller, having been regularly served with process and having failed to appear and answer the plaintiff's complaint filed herein, the legal time for answering or otherwise pleading having expired and no answer, demurrer or other pleading having been filed, and the necessary affidavit having been heretofore filed in compliance with Section 200(1) of the Act of Congress approved October 17, 1940, and cited as the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, and Acts amendatory thereof, setting forth, and from which it appeared, that the defendant, Mae A. Miller, is not in the military service of the United States of America, or of any nation with which the United States is allied in the prosecution of the war in which the United States is now engaged, as defined by Section 101(1) of said Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act approved October 17, 1940, and Section 104 of said Act, as amended October 6, 1942, and cited as the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940 and the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act Amendments of 1942, or as amended by the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1943 (Women's Army Corps), or in any other Act of Congress or of the Legislature of the State of Idaho duly adopted and approved; and the court, upon proof adduced at said hearing, deeming it not necessary for the above named plaintiff to file a bond to indemnify said defendant, Mae A. Miller, against any loss or damage she may suffer by reason of any judgment entered in the above entitled cause, should judgment thereafter be set aside in whole or in part, the default of said defendant, Mae A. Miller, in the premises was thereupon duly entered according to law;

Carey H. Nixon, Esq. appeared as counsel for plaintiff, and the defendant did not appear personally, by counsel, or otherwise, and evidence having been introduced and witnesses examined, and the evidence having been submitted to the court for its decision, and it appearing that all of the allegations of the complaint are true, and all and singular the law and the premises being by the court understood and considered, the court finds and decides:-

1. That the plaintiff has been a bona fide resident of the County of Ada, State of Idaho, for more than six weeks next preceding the commencement of this action.

2. That the plaintiff and defendant intermarried on or about June 5, 1940, at Los Angeles, Los Angeles County, California, and ever since and up to the date of this decree have been husband and wife.

3. That there are no children, the issue of said marriage.

4. That the defendant has treated the plaintiff in a cruel and inhuman manner and such cruel and inhuman treatment so inflicted by the defendant upon the plaintiff has caused plaintiff grievous mental suffering.

5. That the conduct and wrongful acts inflicted by defendant upon plaintiff were occasioned wholly and solely by the defendant and were without justification or excuse or reasonable cause and were without the consent, connivance or fault of plaintiff. That because of defendant's acts and conduct it is impossible for plaintiff to continue his marital relationship with said defendant.

6. That the community property of the plaintiff and defendant consists of the property described in said complaint and hereinafter described, all of which should be awarded, assigned and set apart to plaintiff as his sole and separate property.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

As conclusions of law from the foregoing facts, the court finds, decides and concludes:

1. That plaintiff and defendant are husband and wife and that this court has jurisdiction of the parties.

2. That plaintiff is entitled to a judgment and decree dissolving the bonds of matrimony between the plaintiff and the defendant.

3. That plaintiff should be awarded all of the community real property in this decree hereinafter more particularly described.

WHEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. That the bonds of matrimony existing between said plaintiff, Harry C. Miller, and said defendant, Mae A. Miller, be, and the same hereby are dissolved absolutely, and the said parties, and each of them, be, and they hereby are freed from the obligations thereof.

2. That there is hereby awarded, assigned and set apart to the plaintiff, Harry C. Miller, as his sole and separate property, the following described real property, situated in Ada County, State of Idaho, to-wit:

DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause came regularly on for trial before the Hon. Isaac McDougall, Judge of the above entitled Court, on the 2 day of June, 1949, in the courtroom at Pocatello, Bannock County, Idaho. The plaintiff appeared in person and by her attorney, A. L. Merrill. The defendant appeared by and through his attorney, George R. Phillips. It appeared to the Court that after the plaintiff had filed her complaint and summons had issued, the defendant filed an answer to said complaint, denying the material allegations therein contained, and that thereafter said parties through their attorneys of record duly stipulated in writing that a trial by jury be waived and said cause be set for trial on date hereof. Thereupon evidence was introduced in support of plaintiff's complaint and upon the issues raised by said complaint and the answer of the defendant thereto, which evidence was free from all objection as to its competency, revelancy, and admissibility. Said cause was argued by counsel and submitted to the Court for decision. Written Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law were expressly waived in writing.

The Court being now fully advised in the law and the premises, and it appearing from the evidence that all of the allegations of the plaintiff's complaint are true and correct and that the plaintiff is entitled to the relief sought and as hereinafter adjudged;

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED, and this does ORDER, ADJUDGE, AND DECREE, that a divorce be, and the same is hereby granted the plaintiff, Flora W. O'Brien, and that the marriage existing between said plaintiff, Flora W. O'Brien, and the defendant, William H. O'Brien, which marriage was solemnized on the 21st day of December, 1935, at Riverdale, County of Bergen, State of New Jersey, be, and the same is hereby, dissolved and held for naught and that the parties thereto are freed from all obligations thereof, and each of them is hereby restored to the status of a single person.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED That the property settlement entered into between said parties on the 6th day of April, 1949, a duplicate whereof has been filed with this Court, be, and the same is hereby, in all respects approved and confirmed.

Dated this 2 day of June, 1949.

JUDGMENT AND DECREE

- - - - - - - - - - - - - - - - - -

This cause came on regularly for hearing before the Honorable Isaac McDougall, District Judge of the above Court, at Pocatello, Bannock County, Idaho, on the 2nd day of June, 1949. Plaintiff appeared in person and with his counsel, Black and Black of Pocatello, Idaho; defendant did not appear, either in person or by counsel.

IT APPEARED To the Court that Summons and Complaint in this cause were duly and regularly served by personal service thereof upon the defendant, but that said defendant failed within the time allowed by law, or at all, to appear and plead to or answer the Complaint of the plaintiff herein; and

IT FURTHER APPEARED That defendant is not in the Armed Forces of the United States and that the default of the defendant for failing to appear and plead was duly and regularly entered. Evidence both oral and documentary was thereupon introduced for and on behalf of plaintiff by witnesses, and from the evidence free from all objections as to its competency that all of the material allegations of plaintiff's Complaint are true and correct and such are found to be the facts, and that the plaintiff is entitled to the relief prayed for in the Complaint.

IT FURTHER APPEARED That, prior to the filing of the Complaint herein, the parties to this action entered into a written Agreement, by the terms of which they agreed upon the division of the community property, custody of the minor children, alimony, support of the minor children, which Agreement has been presented to the Court, and the Court further orders that said Agreement is approved by the Court, and the terms thereof are hereinafter incorporated in this Decree; and the making of findings of fact and conclusions of law were waived by the default of the defendant.

NOW, THEREFORE, the Court being fully advised in the premises,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. That the plaintiff be, and he is hereby awarded an absolute divorce from the defendant, and that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between plaintiff and defendant be, and the same are hereby dissolved, and that said parties are, and each of them is, restored to the status of a single person.

2. That the community property has now been divided and a signed statement setting forth said fact has been signed by both parties in accordance with the said agreement, and hereafter neither party shall have a claim upon the property of the other.

3. That the custody of William Warren Bostic, minor son of plaintiff and defendant, now aged one year, is hereby awarded to defendant with the right on the part of plaintiff to have the exclusive right to control and determine the education of said child as long as plaintiff pays for said education; and plaintiff has the further right to custody of said child during summer vacations from school with the understanding that if said child shall be in a military or boarding school so as to be away from both plaintiff and defendant over long periods of time, the custody shall be approximately equally divided between them during such vacations; provided, that when either party shall have the custody of said child, the other shall have the absolute right at all proper and reasonable times to see and visit with said child and to take him for short periods of time when to do so will not interfere with his schooling or physical welfare; provided further, that when the son is in the custody of the plaintiff for a period of one month or longer, then plaintiff need not pay defendant any sum as and for the support of the said son during such time; anything of mutual interest as concerns the well-being of said son shall be brought to the attention of the parent who does not have custody of the child at the time. It is further adjudged and decreed that neither party shall remove said child from the continental United States for any period to exceed three months; should this provision be violated, all and every right under said agreement shall be forfeited by the party so violating the provision, and as to such party, no provision of said agreement shall be enforceable during the continuance of such violation.

4. That the custody of Marie Loretta Bostic, who will be 16 years of age on July 21, 1949, is hereby awarded to defendant as long as defendant provides a fit and proper home for said child, and that said child shall be permitted to go to school or schools of her own choice if within reason and conditions permit; if plaintiff remarries and establishes a fit and proper home, said child shall be permitted to visit plaintiff if she desires; if plaintiff remarries and has established a fit and proper home, and defendant has established a fit and proper home then said child shall be permitted to make her own choice and decision as to which of the parties she shall reside with; if said child elects to live with plaintiff, then plaintiff shall not be required to pay defendant any sum for the support of said child; should said child leave home and not live with either parent for reasons other than to attend school then plaintiff shall not be required to pay defendant any sum for the support of said child.

5. That the plaintiff is required to pay to defendant for her support and maintenance the sum of $120.00 per month for a period of one year; payments beginning as of April 1, 1949; and thereafter, the sum of $75.00 per month for a period of two years; when said payments shall have been fully made, all liability whatsoever of plaintiff for support and maintenance of defendant shall forever cease and terminate.

6. That the plaintiff is hereby required to pay to defendant for the support of William Warren Bostic, minor son of plaintiff and defendant, now aged one year, the sum of $40.00 per month until said William Warren Bostic has reached the age of 21 years, to-wit: the 22nd day of April, 1969, or until he is married, or until he is gainfully employed, or until the time he ceases to live with defendant, whichever is the sooner; subject to the provisions in Paragraph numbered three of this Decree, or until further order of the Court.

7. That the plaintiff is hereby required to pay to defendant for the support and maintenance of Marie Loretta Bostic, minor daughter, who will be 16 years of age July 21, 1949, the sum of $40.00 per month until she is twenty-one (21) years of age, to-wit: the 21st day of July, 1954, or until she is married, or until she is gainfully employed or until such time as she ceases to live with defendant, whichever is the sooner; subject to the provisions in Paragraph numbered four of this Decree, or until further order of the Court.

8. That the plaintiff shall not be responsible for any debts of defendant, and defendant shall hold plaintiff harmless from all debts or charges hereafter contracted by her.

9. That the defendant shall not be responsible for any debts of plaintiff, and plaintiff shall hold defendant harmless from all debts or charges hereafter contracted by him.

10. IT IS FURTHER ADJUDGED AND DECREED That all of the provisions of said Agreement referred to, given in evidence, and approved by the Court are hereby made binding and obligatory upon the parties hereto, their heirs, executors, administrators, personal representatives, and assigns.

Dated this 2nd day of June 1949.

JUDGMENT

The above matter came on regularly for trial before the above court sitting in regular session in Gooding, Idaho, this 8th day of June, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and by his attorneys, James, Shaw & James, and the defendant appearing not at all. It appeared further and the court finds that the defendant had been duly and regularly served with process and that she had failed to answer within the time fixed by law, and that the default of the defendant for her failure to appear has been duly entered by the clerk of the court.

Whereupon, evidence duly corroborated, was introduced on behalf of the plaintiff in support of his complaint from which it appears and the court finds that the allegations of the complaint are true and correct and that the defendant is guilty of extreme cruelty as charged in said Complaint, and that the plaintiff is and for several years last past and immediately prior to the filing of the Complaint herein has been an actual bona fide resident of the State of Idaho.

It further appeared to the satisfaction of the court that the parties to this action have heretofore entered into a written contract settling all property and other rights involved in this action, which contract is in full as follows, to-wit:

and the court being fully advised in the premises;

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between JOHN WILLIAM DANIELS and MILDRED DANIELS be and the same hereby are dissolved, and each of said parties are hereby restored to the status of a single person; that the contract so entered into between the parties to this action, a copy of which is contained herein, is hereby ratified and confirmed, and the property and property rights of the parties to this action are hereby awarded and decreed to the respective parties as in said contract specified.

The above matter came on for hearing before the undersigned Judge of the District Court in open Court at Jerome, Idaho on the 21st day of May, 1949. Clara L. Carnahan, Plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney, Henry M. Hall, and the defendant not appearing either in person or by attorney. It appearing to the Court that due legal and regular service was made upon the defendant in the State of California upon an order made by the Clerk of the above entitled Court directing that the defendant be served personally with a copy of the summons to which there should be attached a copy of the complaint outside the State of Idaho, to wit: in the state of California in lieu of publication of said summons. It further appearing to the Court that the defendant failed and neglected to file a demurrer or answer to said complaint, and that upon the expiration of the time for such appearance, his default was duly entered by the Clerk of this Court.

It appearing to the Court that the matter was ready for hearing and determination, plaintiff and her witness were duly sworn according to law. Testimony was given by the said plaintiff in support of the allegations contained in her complaint, and the Court finds that all the material allegations of the complaint were duly proven and supported by the evidence free and clear of any and all legal objections. And the Court further finds that the plaintiff was and is a resident of the State of Idaho, and that she has resided within the said State of Idaho for more than six weeks immediately prior to the institution of this action, and that proof of her said residence was duly corroborated by other competent testimony. The Court further finds from the evidence that the minor child, issue of said marriage, named Ernest Frank Carnahan, was within the jurisdiction of the Court at the time of the filing of plaintiff's complaint, and that the said child should remain under the control and custody and care of the said plaintiff.

NOW THEREFORE, it is the Judgement of this Court that the bonds of matrimony existing between the plaintiff and the defendant be by the Court dissolved, and the same are by the Court dissolved, and that each of the said parties to this action are restored to the status of a single, unmarried person. That the plaintiff shall be entitled to the care, control and custody of Ernest Frank Carnahan, issue of said marriage, until he shall reach the age of majority, or until further order of the Court.

WITNESS MY HAND this 27th day of May, 1949.

Hugh A. Baker,
Presiding District Judge.

DECREE

This action having come regularly on for hearing this day pursuant to written Stipulation filed herein, the Plaintiff appearing in person and with his attorney, E. T. Knudson, but the Defendant did not appear and was not represented.

The Court finds that due and legal service of the Summons in this cause has been made upon the Defendant within the State of Nebraska; that the Defendant has regularly filed herein a Demurrer to the Plaintiff's Complaint together with a "Waiver and Stipulation" whereby the Defendant stipulated that the Demurrer may be submitted to the Court without further notice and upon entry of an order overruling said Demurrer the Defendant declined to further plead in this cause and further expressly consented to the hearing on this cause upon its merits, forthwith and without further notice to the Defendant; and that the default of the said Defendant has been duly entered herein and that this cause has come regularly on for hearing.

The Court further finds that the Plaintiff is entitled to a Decree herein as prayed for in Plaintiff's Complaint and that Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law have been expressly waived herein.

NOW, THEREFORE, on motion of E. T. Knudson, attorney for the Plaintiff,

IT IS BY THE COURT ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the Plaintiff, GUS TREBBE, and the Defendant, MARGARET B. TREBBE, be, and the same hereby are vacated, dissolved and set aside upon the ground of extreme cruelty.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the "Property Settlement Agreement" entered into by these parties under date of May 9, 1949, a true copy of which "Property Settlement Agreement" is marked "Exhibit A" and made a part of the Plaintiff's Complaint herein, is a fair, just and equitable settlement between these parties of all community property belonging to these parties and their rights and obligations each to the other and said Settlement Agreement is hereby approved as a valid and existing obligation and binding upon both parties to this action.
